ORAL ORDER:

(per The Hon'ble Sri Devinder Gupta, the Chief Justice)

This Writ Petition was filed seeking production of petitioner's daughter alleged to have been missing from 20.8.2004. Petitioner, in the writ petition, has stated that she has lodged a complaint with the Station House Officer, Madhapur giving the names of the suspected, but no effort has been made to trace her daughter.

Affidavit in reply was filed, and, we have directed additional reply to be filed as to whether alleged suspects were examined or not. Additional affidavit has been filed by B.Surender Rao. It is stated that efforts were made to trace the daughter of the petitioner and it has not been possible to trace her despite the efforts and the Investigating Officer caused enquiries on 24.9.2004 at Chandanagar, Miyapur and Kukatpally area. Neither the petitioner nor the suspects were traced. It is stated that nobody was able to give addresses of the suspects.

In these circumstances, no further direction deserves to be issued except directing that investigation will be continued to be conducted in accordance with law, and, on conclusion, appropriate report be filed in the competent court. The Writ Petition stands disposed of.
